The Record of Worldwide coin

What is it Regalcoin?

Regalcoin is a crypto currency. This currency is like the Dollar, but it is only available in the digital world. The concept may sound like Bitcoin, and is actually not much different from bitcoin.

Transfer instant Peer to Peer

Peer-to-peer itself means Regalcoin runs without having a central server. The storage server is decentralized and distributed-divided into various servers run by each user connected to the network.

Transfer money easily

Just like Bitcoin, it can be sent anywhere in seconds, whenever and wherever you want. Money transfer with Regalcoin can happen only with a smartphone's and internet connection.

Transfer fee is very small to zero

Transfer fee can be removed until free, but to speed up transactions, you can set the cost in RegalCoin wallet as needed no matter how much coin is sent.

Regalcoin transactions are Anonymous

All the transactions we have done can be seen, but we do not know who the owner of the Regalcoin address is if the owner does not tell it. Each Regalcoin user can actually choose whether or not his name will appear, but even if the user wants to keep his identity secret, all of his transactions are still recorded and can be monitored through blockchain.
